

Rome

22^d April, 1838

My dear Mrs Motch,

It is long since I heard from you, but I hope you are well enough to take pleasure in receiving your country people, when they are capable of imparting any pleasure. Yes, where I could not say of all I venture to of the lady who brings this, like your self one of the Americans like yourself full of vivacity and kind dispositions. If you were you find her wanting in faculties that grow feeble, or any way asking your counsel I doubt not you will render it with your accustomed generosity.

It is long since I heard
directly from my dear Mrs Farrow, but my sister informs me Mr F. Thayer still as suffering is much more cheerful; how I rejoice in any alleviation of her troubles. I sent an excellent ~~to~~ ~~a~~ ~~from~~ Maria, but it was old, having been sent to

Prere New York, and waited there a long time before it could escape to Prere. Truly

I write no more, this being Easter Sunday which closes a week whose gorgeous & hours are fatiguing beyond any thing I ever experienced.
The miserables tire too miserably; the benedict leave me unblest, the beaver, Mrs Ames, will have enough to tell of Prere, if you incline to him, her husband has seen much of the Pope, who has sent to him with apparent satisfaction, With much respect and affection,

Dear Mrs Proch,
yours J. M. Fuller.
